

Executive Leadership Honor Roll

OnBoard.

The OnBoard Executive Leadership Honor Roll is designed to recognize women who are in executive leadership positions and in the pipeline for future corporate board membership. It is awarded annually to three Georgia based women leaders to highlight OnBoard's mission to increase the number of women in executive leadership.

About OnBoard

OnBoard is the leading authority and catalyst for women in the boardroom for Georgia public companies. Our community includes those who support the growth and development of women to the highest levels in an organization. OnBoard: Provides an annual study; Connects to the national organization ION; Assists women in raising their visibility for board candidacy; Connects companies to qualified woman for board service; Recognizes inspirational achievement through the Lettie Pate Whitehead Evans Award and the Executive Leadership Honor Roll.

Criteria

An honor roll honoree is a Georgia-based woman in a significant leadership role within her organization. She is a role model of career achievement and is building the credentials that place her in the pipeline for corporate board membership. She has:

- Achieved excellence in her profession, as recognized by her colleagues;
- Developed skills and qualifications that prepare her for future corporate board membership;
- Attained a significant executive level position of leadership in her organization, making her a role model for others; and
- Advocated for and mentored other women in building their potential.

Selection process

Call for nominations is now open from OnBoard's constituency with final selection by a committee of OnBoard board and members. Applications for 2019 are due April 29, 2019 and honorees must be able to attend the OnBoard June 18th leadership breakfast where the award will be featured and the awardee will have a panel discussion about their experience and successes. Completed applications should be emailed to: Execdirector@onboardnow.org.
